1. Introduction

Are you looking for an African host institution from where to implement a novel idea that you have in mind? Do you need a reputable hosting/sponsoring organisation to manage your grant? Do you need to gain hands-on experience on how to develop a competitive grant? EthiXPERT has got you covered!

2. What is EthiXPERT

EthiXPERT is a Pan African non-profit organisation established to build capacity for health research ethics in and for Africa. Officially registered on 11 May 2018 in the Republic of South Africa, EthiXPERT's primary mandate is to build responsible and ethical research capacity in and for Africa through the provision of training and development of relevant tools to facilitate knowledge and skill building for and with stakeholders in health and social research in Africa. <https://www.ethixpert.org.za>

We have a vision of Inspiring responsible and ethical research capacity in and for Africa and a mission to Build institutions in Africa's capabilities to deliver responsible and ethical research to address existing health and social challenges facing Africa. To deliver its mandate, EthiXPERT is dedicated to building institutions in Africa's capabilities to deliver responsible and ethical research to address existing health and social challenges facing Africa. Our activities are guided by five values: ubuntu care, integrity, collaboration, and fairness.

3. What are we looking for?

EthiXPERT is looking for competent associates, including scholars, early-career researchers, and grant writers who are interested in conceptualising and developing their research and grant ideas under the EthiXPERT CEO's leadership. Through this new exciting opportunity, EthiXPERT offers to host, support and guide individuals who wish to create a niche in their career and establish their grants under EthiXPERT's oversight and management. Through this, EthiXPERT shall grant competent professional associates, scholars, early-career researchers and grant writers who have the potential to develop competent research or project grants but lack a host institution the opportunity to do this at EthiXPERT. This way, EthiXPERT shall provide a reliable and reputable hosting/sponsoring institution critical to the efficient and successful management of their grants.

4. What process will be followed?

We are looking for competent associates, scholars, early-career researchers and grant writers to undertake the following tasks

- Develop and sign a contract as an independent contractor with EthiXPERT
- Upon signing a contract, with the guidance of the EthiXPERT CEO, develop a competitive proposal in your field of interest for funding
- During submission of the proposal, use EthiXPERT affiliation, company profile, reference and contacts to support the application, as your hosting/sponsoring organisation
- Upon the application being successful, allow EthiXPERT to manage your grant and oversight/manage the grant through the EthiXPERT finance and grant management offices

5. What benefits does this offer?

The benefits of this model include

- Allows competent associates, including scholars, early-career researchers and grant writers who may not have a host institution to carry out their work and achieve their dreams under the auspice of EthiXPERT.
- Allows individuals to receive hands-on support and advice from the EthiXPERT CEO on competitive proposal development and efficient project implementation and management.
- Allows individuals to receive ongoing monitoring and administrative support of their projects and grants through EthiXPERT's finance, grant management and the COO
- Allows individuals to receive continuing professional growth and development in their area of expertise through ongoing consultation and support.
- Allows individuals to enjoy professional freedom and maturity through limited supervision and efficient leadership skill-building.

6. How can you be part of this exciting opportunity?

To be considered for this opportunity, you are required to develop and share a brief description of the proposal/grant you would want to develop, accompanied by your abridged CV/bio sketch, to the email address below.
